

STRATEGIC CORPORATE FINANCE FOR EXECUTIVES

Manama - Bahrain

11 - Jan 2026 - 15 - Jan 2026

$5,800

GENTEX[®]
TRAINING CENTER

Introduction

Strategic Corporate Finance for Executives is designed to equip business leaders and executives with essential financial management skills. This comprehensive five-day course offered by Gentex Training Center provides participants with a deep understanding of corporate financial strategy and decision-making. Participants will explore critical finance topics, including investment analysis, risk assessment, capital structuring, and value creation. The course combines theoretical knowledge with practical insights to enhance executives' strategic decision-making capabilities, empowering them to effectively contribute to their organization's financial success.

Strategic Corporate Finance for Executives Course Objectives

- Understand key concepts and principles of corporate finance and strategic financial management.
- Analyze and interpret financial statements to make informed strategic decisions.
- Apply advanced methods for evaluating investment opportunities and capital projects.
- Effectively assess financial risks and implement appropriate management strategies.
- Develop strategies to optimize capital structure and enhance shareholder value.
- Identify and address corporate finance issues to improve organizational financial performance.
- Create and evaluate financial models for strategic planning and forecasting.

Course Methodology

This course utilizes a combination of interactive lectures, practical workshops, group discussions, case studies, and real-world financial scenarios to reinforce learning and practical application.

Who Should Take This Course

- Senior Executives
- Financial Managers
- Business Leaders
- Strategic Planners
- Corporate Analysts

Strategic Corporate Finance for Executives Course Outlines

Day 1: Fundamentals of Corporate Finance

- Overview of Strategic Corporate Finance
- Financial Statement Analysis and Interpretation
- Cash Flow Management Strategies
- Time Value of Money Concepts
- Case Study: Practical Financial Analysis

Day 2: Investment Decision-Making

- Capital Budgeting Techniques
- Investment Appraisal Methods
- Understanding Cost of Capital
- Risk Assessment in Investments
- Group Workshop: Evaluating Investment Opportunities

Day 3: Corporate Risk Management

- Identifying and Measuring Financial Risk
- Strategies for Risk Mitigation
- Corporate Governance and Financial Controls
- Scenario Analysis and Financial Modeling
- Case Discussion: Managing Corporate Financial Risks

Day 4: Capital Structure and Financing Strategies

- Determining Optimal Capital Structure
- Debt vs. Equity Financing
- Cost and Implications of Financing Options
- Dividend Policy and Shareholder Value
- Practical Exercise: Structuring Optimal Financing Solutions

Day 5: Strategic Financial Planning and Forecasting

- Developing Financial Forecasts
- Budgeting and Strategic Planning
- Performance Measurement and Financial KPIs
- Strategic Decision-Making Using Financial Models
- Final Project: Creating Strategic Financial Plans

Conclusion

By successfully completing the Strategic Corporate Finance for Executives course at Gentex Training Center, participants will gain comprehensive knowledge and skills necessary to confidently address complex financial challenges. Executives will leave equipped with advanced strategic finance capabilities, enabling them to make informed decisions that enhance their organization's financial strength and competitive advantage.